We maintain records season-wise for challenging pest & premises, which no other agency doing, and this same fact makes us different and better from the rest of the companies. "We always strive hard to be a customer driven pest control company with our continuous quest in improving our professional techniques in order to benefit our service to our customers and community and environment. Many unwelcome animals visit or make their home in residential buildings, industrial sites and urban areas. Some contaminate foodstuffs, damage structural timbers, chew through fabrics or infest stored drygoods. Some inflict great economic loss, others carry diseases and some are just a nuisance. Control of these pests is done by improving sanitation and garbage control, modifying the habitat, and using repellents, growth regulators, traps, baits and pesticides."
